Secrecy

Staff exclusiveness

SECURITY CULTURE

• "Security activity that expresses willingness to act

and behave according to acquired knowledge and skills, but also values and principles"

(Vocabulary of security culture, BCSP)

CIVILIANS AND SECURITY SECTOR REFORM

• What has SSR enabled for civilians?

1) IMPORTANT/HIGH FORMAL POSITIONS

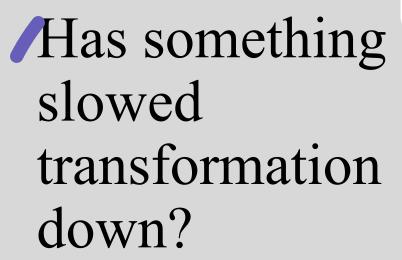

• Civilians that I will tackle in my presentation are:

• 1)POST-GRADUATE STUDENTS (and how they can take formal positions in security sector) YOUTH IN SECURITY SECTOR

• 2) HIGHSCHOOL STUDENTS (and how they can acquire knowledge in security issues) YOUTH IN SECURITY CULTURE

Context

SECOND PROPOSAL

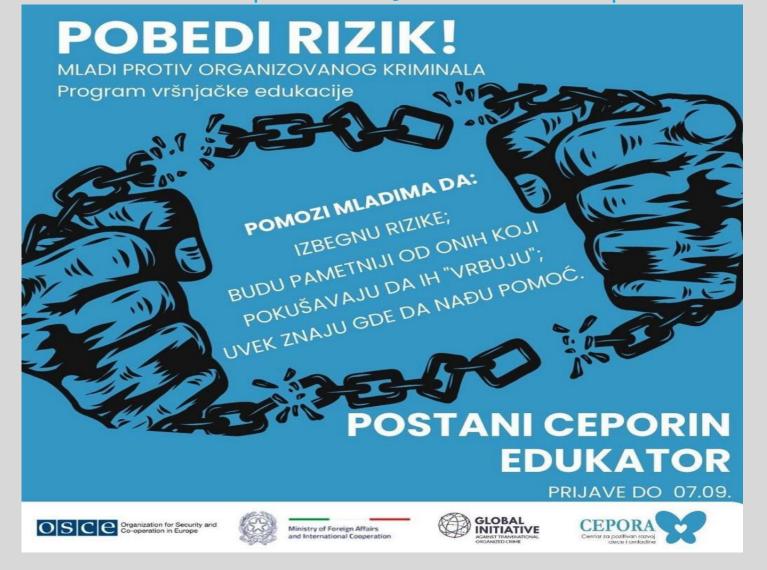

- To organize peer educations for senior high school students in Belgrade about basic security concepts, in collaboration of two NGOs: Belgrade Center for Security Policies and CEPORA
- Two sessions: 1) human security2) national and international security

BENEFITS

- Young people are key actors in transformation of political culture
- With interactive workshops they will acquire knowledge needed for setting their positions on important topics such as war crisis, military service, public security etc.
- Peer educators are impowered to embrace civil engagement

Peer educations on security have been done before...

CEPORA-Center for positive youth development

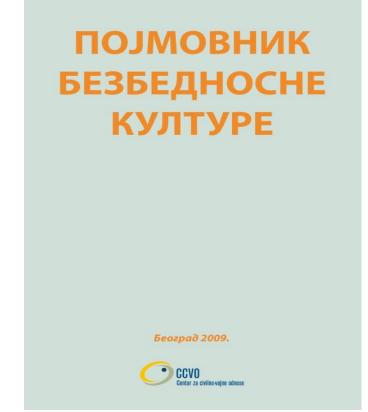

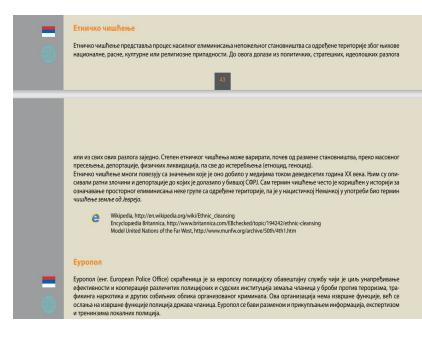

PROBLEM

- Peer educations that have been organized by CEPORA so far were mostly based on materials that Ministry of Education prepared.
